

Field Concrete Repair Technician

This position performs a variety of construction-related tasks, which may include the restoration and protection of concrete structures, application of Vectors corrosion mitigation processes, and assisting other workers with duties specific to a project.

The successful candidate will have the following qualifications:

- Willingness to learn and grow as part of a team.
- Qualified candidates should have the ability to perform quick, accurate and careful work.
- Ability to work with the rest of your team to see projects through to completion with the highest standards for safety and end product delivery to ensure customer satisfaction.
- Must be able to lift and carry 50 pounds or more.
- Ability to understand and follow Vector Safety and Health Program.
- Good communication skills.
- Prior concrete construction experience helpful.
- Some travel required.
- Drivers' license helpful.
- Ability to work independently.

Benefits included:

- Salary $13.00-$17.00 per hour
- Paid health insurance
- Life insurance
- 401k pension plan with employer match
- Vacation plan
- Employee training, development and advancement opportunities within the company

Vector Construction Group, an expanding construction organization in operation for over 40 years, is a privately owned corporation with 11 offices throughout Canada and the United States. Vector takes pride in offering the most technically advanced yet cost effective solutions for the repair, restoration and protection of concrete structures and has earned numerous awards and patents for product innovation.

Vector Construction is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Successful candidate will be required to pass drug screen.

For confidential consideration, submit your application to:

Vector Construction Group
Attention: HR Department
PO Box 8120
Cedar Rapids, IA 52408
Email: Keiths@vectorgroup.com
www.vectorgroup.com