

Project Manager Concrete Repair Projects

Vector Construction Group has immediate openings for a Project Manager. Reporting to the Branch Manager the Project Manager will be responsible to supervise, direct and coordinate the production resources in the execution of a variety of projects. Projects include all types of concrete restoration, corrosion related work and chemical protection of structures. This position plays an integral part of the Branch team in meeting project deadlines and ensuring the success of the Branch. Specifically this position is responsible for:

- Coordinating, plan and managing all phases of multiple construction projects simultaneously.
- Estimate and quote on potential project with successful outcomes.
- Communicating and managing Branch Health and Safety Program on construction sites.
- Manage and negotiate change orders on projects.
- Manager HR aspects of construction crews,
- Managing field resources, labor and related material.
- Completing all required documentation for completion of projects.
- Ensuring complete customer satisfaction with all phases of projects through to completion.

Required Qualifications:

- 3 year proven track record in construction management.
- Demonstrated high level of energy, degree of initiative, leadership, self-starter.
- Demonstrated strong written communication skills.
- Proven ability to think strategically and demonstrates strong problem solving capabilities
- Excellent supervisory skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Good communication skills
- Ability to read construction drawings.
- Strong Computer Skills
- Some travel required
- Ability to work independently
- Education requirement of Bachelors Degree and/or equivalent experience

Vector Construction Group offers a highly competitive salary & benefits package, reflective of your skills and experience. Vector Construction is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Successful candidate will be required to pass drug screen.

Vector Construction Group, an expanding construction organization in operation for over 40 years, is a privately owned corporation with 11 offices throughout Canada and the United States. Vector takes pride in offering the most technically advanced yet cost effective solutions for the repair, restoration and protection of concrete structures and has earned numerous awards and patents for product innovation.

For confidential consideration, submit your cover letter, resume and salary requirements to:

Vector Construction Group
Attention: HR Department
PO Box 9769
Fargo, ND 58106
Email: jeffj@vectorgroup.com
www.vectorgroup.com

